The show runs twice daily, at 11am and 3pm (2pm during the winter), except Tuesdays, and one show on Fridays at 1pm. It features 45 legionaries in full armour in a display of Roman Army drill and battle tactics, ten gladiators fighting "to the death," and several Roman chariots competing in a classical seven lap race around the ancient hippodrome. For more information, visit the RACE website: www.jerashchariots.com

DEAD SEA

The Dead Sea is the largest natural spa on earth. The leading attraction at the Dead Sea is the warm, soothing, super salty water itself - some ten times saltier than regular sea water, and rich in chloride salts of magnesium, sodium, potassium, bromine and several others. The unusually warm, incredibly buoyant and mineral-rich waters have attracted visitors since ancient times, including King Herod the Great and the beautiful Egyptian Queen, Cleopatra. The vapour that rises from the continuously evaporating surface of the sea acts as a natural filter for potentially harmful UVB rays.

Umm Ar-Rasas (Kastrom Mefa'a)

Umm Ar-Rasas is a masterpiece of human creative genius given the artistic and technical qualities of the mosaic floor of St. Stephen's church. It presents a unique and complete (therefore outstanding) example of stylite towers.

Umm Ar-Rasas is strongly associated with monasticism and with the spread of monotheism in the whole region, including Islam.

Umm Ar-Rasas is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

PETRA

Inhabited since prehistoric times, this Nabataean caravan city, situated between the Red Sea and the Dead Sea, was an important crossroad between Arabia, Egypt and Syria-Phoenicia. Petra is half built, half carved into the rock, and is surrounded by mountains riddled with passages and gorges. It is one of the world's most famous archaeological sites, where ancient Eastern traditions blend with Hellenistic architecture.
